

Welcome to LifeWave and our Heart-Centered Team,

Having the opportunity to collaborate with the spectacular souls who are called in by this light technology is the joy that fuels my fire each day. I look forward to getting to know you as we join forces to spread the word about this soft-spoken yet wildly transformative healing modality.

1- Here is a link that will allow you to seamlessly schedule an appointment with me: <http://MeetJuliana.com>. I have time slots available throughout the week for 3-way calls, coaching sessions, questions and conversations.

My favorite type of appointment is a 3-way call with you and one of your prospective customers or business partners. There is a magic in this type of collaboration — a.k.a. “The whole is greater than the sum of its parts.” If you are not familiar with the art of the 3-way call, we can go over it during our business training calls.

You are always welcome to call or text me spontaneously. I will do my best to respond in timely manner. However, if you want to ensure that you get through and have my undivided attention, scheduling a 15-minute Express Chat is a good idea.

2- LifeWave Corporate has foundational information on this educational website: LifewaveSuccessLibrary.com. You can listen to videos by David Schmidt, Lifewave’s founder & CEO on LifeWave’s YouTube channel. LifeWave Empower Calls are held to personally enrich us on Wednesdays @ 6 pm PDT / 9 pm EDT.

3- Juliana Coles’ team resources:

3a- Juliana sends out regular updates via email. If you are not on my direct email list (limited in size), you should be receiving my emails from your sponsor.

3b- You will be receiving an invitation to join our LifeWave Team Dropbox folder where you will find recordings of past trainings, helpful documents and research. If you have not received an invitation, please contact Juliana to request one.

3c- For those wanting a website to send to prospects embedded with their own contact information, you may want to consider commissioning a replication of the site that Juliana developed: QuantumLightWaves.com. My talented website designer, Michelle Blais, will recreate this same site for you with your contact information at the bottom. It will be linked to your own URL. She charges $250. You can contact Michelle directly @ 860-564-1831.

3d- Juliana's business training calls via Zoom ID# 820 4095 0336:

4- Our team is part of a larger network of support led by Onyx Coale & Kathy Rodríguez (Tier 1) and by Peter Ngo & Marci Preble (Tier 2). Many tools have been developed before we arrived on the scene. I have been culling through them all in an effort to edit and streamline what is being offered. Stay tuned.
